Shareholder or potential Substantial Shareholder an objection to any proposed transfer of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock or Preferred Stock described in the Declaration of Proposed Transfer on the grounds that such transfer might adversely affect the Debtors' ability to utilize their Tax Attributes. If the Debtors file an objection, such transaction will remain ineffective unless such objection is withdrawn by the Debtors or such transaction is approved by a final and non-appealable order of the Court. If the Debtors do not object within such 15-business-day period, such transaction can proceed solely as set forth in the Declaration of Proposed Transfer. Further transactions within the scope of this paragraph must be the subject of additional notices in accordance with the procedures set forth herein, with an additional 15-business-day waiting period for each Declaration of Proposed Transfer.

- e. For purposes of the Equity Procedures: (i) a "Substantial Shareholder" is any entity or individual that has Beneficial Ownership of at least: (A) 4.75% of all issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock of the applicable NOL Debtor or (B) 4.75% of all issued and outstanding shares of Preferred Stock of the applicable NOL Debtor;<sup>2</sup> (ii) "Beneficial Ownership" shall be determined in accordance with the applicable rules of Section 382 of the IRC and the Treasury Regulations thereunder and includes direct and indirect ownership (e.g., a holding company would be considered to beneficially own all shares owned or acquired by its subsidiaries and a partner in a partnership would be considered to own its proportionate share of any equity securities owned by such partnership), ownership by such holder's family members and entities acting in concert with such holder to make a coordinated acquisition of equity securities, and ownership of equity securities that such holder has an Option to acquire; and (iii) an "Option" to acquire stock includes any contingent purchase, warrant, convertible debt, put, call, stock subject to risk of forfeiture, contract to acquire stock, or similar interest, regardless of whether such interest is contingent or otherwise not currently exercisable.

The Debtors will have 15 business days after receipt of a Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction to file with the Court and serve on such 50% Shareholder an objection to any proposed claim of worthlessness described in the Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction on the grounds that such claim might adversely affect the Debtors’ ability to utilize their Tax Attributes. During such 15-business-day period, and while any objection by the Debtors to the proposed claim is pending, such 50% Shareholder shall not claim, or cause to be claimed, the proposed worthless stock deduction to which the Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction relates and thereafter in accordance with the Court’s ruling, and, as applicable, any appellate rules and procedures. If the Debtors do not object within such 15-business-day period, the filing of the tax return with such claim would be permitted as set forth in the Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction. Additional tax returns within the scope of this paragraph must be the subject of additional notices as set forth herein, with an additional 15-business-day waiting period.
- d. For purposes of the procedures a “50% Shareholder” is any person or entity that is or becomes a “50-percent shareholder” with respect to the Common Stock or the Preferred Stock within the meaning of section 382(g)(4)(D) of the IRC and the applicable Treasury Regulations.
